GENRE Reggae

Tóke is one of the best upcoming artists on the german reggae scene. He proved that already with the release of his »Troddin' with a Vision« EP and a few successful singles like »Too Much« and »Woman of Mine«. Now he finally releases the first single from the upcoming album called »Frizzle«. The album »Wake Up Inna Kingston« will follow up in the beginning of may. The album is a joint venture with Bassplate Records from Bologna, Italy and will be surrounded by concerts and interviews in Jamaica, Germany, Italy and Indonesia.

The half German, half Indonesian reggae singer and songwriter is still a newcomer, but with his charismatic style and his sensitive voice he already gets a lot of support from the inner circle of the german reggae scene. In early 2015 this love brought him to Jamaica for the first time, where he got a lot of positive feedback by local artists like Exile di Brave and got invited to join them on stage. There he managed to convince the Jamaican audience. Radio interviews and more invitations came after that.

In the second half of 2015 Tóke spend some time in Indonesia and toured together with Ras Muhamad. And at the same time he started to work with Bassplate Records on the songs for his album. Tóke named himself after the gecko from his birth country Indonesia. And likewise he get recognized by his voice. And this voice got him to be #3 in the category „Best national newcomer“ of the 2015 RIDDIM readers poll.
